SENIORS

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

September, 1955, found sixty-four uncertain freshmen entering CGHS to begin a four year journey. Eleanor Berbaum was our candidate for Homecoming Queen. A member of our class, Janet Merritt, was also a Bronco cheerleader. At the first of the year the sophomore class welcomed us with a wiener roast.

To start our second year at CGHS we elected Joyce Cockrum to represent our class in the Homecoming Court. Cheerleaders included Janet Merritt and Carolyn Clark. We welcomed the new class of freshmen with a wiener roast and dance. In the Homecoming parade our float "It's An Age Old Story CG Wins Again" placed first.

Upperclassmen at last! We elected Joyce Cockrum to be our Homecoming Queen Candidate. Janet Merritt, Carolyn Clark, and Joyce Guy served as cheerleaders. November 17 we presented our first class play "Mister Co-ed". To celebrate the "Day for Lovers" we held a valentine dance. A Queen of Hearts was selected from ten candidates representing school organizations. Among the candidates were Joyce Guy and Mary Waltz. Theme for our prom held May 11 was "A Garden of Roses". For the first time juniors and seniors were able to bring their dates to the banquet. The John Shepard Combo provided the music for the dance.

For the last lap of our four year journey we elected Leroy Dugan, president, Bill Frazee, vice-president, Elgene Eaton, secretary, and Buzz Nelson, treasurer. Homecoming Queen candidates were Carolyn Clark, Joyce Cockrum, and Janet Merritt. Carolyn was named Queen at the pep meeting. The rest of the classes provided attendants for the Homecoming Court. Maxine and Her All-Male Orchestra played for the dance. In December we held a Snow-Ball featuring the John Shepard Combo. Cheerleaders from our class were Janet Merritt, Carolyn Clark, and Joyce Guy. At the Newman Christmas Dance and the Arcola Sweetheart Dance Joyce Guy and Janet Merritt represented our school. During April we presented a three act comedy entitled "Six Stiches For Ego". Sherwood Resort in the Ozarks was the site of our senior trip held May 16, 17, and 18. Baccalaureate services were held May 25. Eight o'clock May 28 the Class of '58, consisting of forty-eight members, ended their four year journey at CGHS with the graduation ceremony.

JUNIORS

Being led by four pretty lasses, the Juniors ventured into the upper classmen world. The most thrilling moment of the year came with the arrival of their class rings. Second only to this was the Junior & Senior Banquet and Prom. With "Mayday Memories" as their theme, the Juniors gave the Seniors a farewell dance to remember.

Other accomplishments through the year included the Junior Play, "Love is Too Much Trouble" and the annual Valentine dance.

Gene Cripe and Irene Crowe represented their class as Jr. Varsity cheerleaders while Maralyn and Carolyn Eads served on the Varsity squad. Two attractive ladies, Judy Martin, homecoming attendant and Carolyn Eads, Valentine Sweetheart, quite aptly represented the Juniors in the department of beauty.

SOPHOMORES

The sophomores began their second year in high school by welcoming the freshmen into CGHS with a weiner roast and a dance.

Homecoming was a big event for the class when the float "The Best Man Always Wins," won first prize in the parade.

In the spring, the sophomores gave a dance.

Linda Clark and Arlene Atteberry served as Junior Varsity cheerleaders.

STUDENT COUNCIL

With the selection of "Proverbs" for a homecoming parade theme Student Council began a busy year. The Council passed a petition signed by a marjority of students stating that the homecoming queen be elected from the senior class in the coming years and that the other classes would elect a representative from their class. The Council honored the Queen by decorating a float on which she rode in the parade.

Betty Gross, Joyce Guy and Marjorie Conley attended the Champaign Student Council Convention at Hoopston High School. The annual State Convention held in Chicago was attended by Irene Crowe and Maralyn Eads.

Student assemblies were presented by FHA, Lettermens Club and Student Council.

FOOTBALL

Although the Broncos had a 2-6 record, the season was far from unsuccessful. In downing Bement 20-13, the Broncos won back the traveling trophy. A win over Atwood provided a major Okaw upset. Captain for the year and a member of the second all-Okaw team was fullback Dave Babcock.

BASKETBALL

After winning eight straight games at the beginning of the season, the Broncs played at less than a .500 clip during the '58 part of the season. A final 16-11 record marked a season which was respectable.

The 1957-58 season also brought the first trophy to CGHS after a long dry spell which the Broncs won the district meet.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society is purely an honorary organization. However, not more than 15 percent of the senior class nor 5 percent of the junior class may be members. The members are chosen in consideration of these five qualifications: scholastic rank, citizenship, leadership, character, and service.

D.A.R. - S.A.R.

Elgene Eaton and Dave Babcock were chosen by the members of their class and the high school faculty to receive the good citizenship award of the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Sons of the American Revolution. The standards by which the awards are given are scholarship, honesty, dependability, citizenship, and personality.

Elgene is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Eaton. She was Secretary of her senior class, and was active in Office Aides, F.H.A., Super Scooper and the Gordian. Dave is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Babcock. He was class Vice-president his freshman, sophomore and junior years, and was active in Band, F.F.A., Student Council, the Gordian, football, basketball, and track.
